

BIOGRAPHY

Patricia Boysselle is originally from Mexico City. She studied interior design at the Miguel Ángel's Institute from 1969 to 1972. Patricia lived in Villahermosa, Tabasco from 1978 to 2009, and currently lives in the city of Cuernavaca, Morelos. At age 7 she won her first drawing competition, organized by the well-known Prismacolor. Since then she began to take painting classes. At age 12 Patricia was installed in the workshops of the IMSS, where she discovered that she had a natural talent for the Visual Arts. For seventeen years she specialized in the mastery of watercolor. It was under the direction of "Maestro" Román Barrales, that she began her oil technique lessons. Nowadays, she explores with different textures.

From 1989 to 1993 she studied painting under the direction of Maestro Jorge del Moral at the "José Clemente Orozco" Workshop.

In 1994 she participated in the contest made by Sun Chemical "color, water and paper" where he obtained a special recognition with her work that was selected to travel to various cities of the Mexican Republic.

After 17 years of watercolor she began with the "Maestro" Román Barrales the oil technique.

In 2006 she attended a textures workshop at the academy of Master Virgilio Lara in Jiutepec, Morelos.

She did the arenas workshop with Master Carolina Leon in the city of Guadalajara, Jalisco.

In 2007 she traveled to the city of Madrid Spain to enter the Taller del Prado, a Plastic Arts course directed by Maestro Francisco Molina Montero.

At her return she participated in the State Painting Competition "Ricardo García Mora" obtaining Honorific Mention for her presented work.

In July 2009 she attended a Contemporary Art course at the "Atelier 31" Academy with Master Cristophe Arbieu, in the city of Montpellier, France.

During this entire trajectory she participated in diverse collective and individual exhibitions in different cultural spaces of Villahermosa, Tabasco; Cancún, Qro; Oaxaca and Mexico City.
